EXECUTIVE MEETING

January 2, 2019

Press wishing to do a news story on Jim's success overseas as well as talk to a representative of the League and advises the Board that the President will handle the interview.

The Vice President reports that the President would like to obtain a few chalker samples in preparation for the 75th Anniversary. After a brief discussion the Board agrees with this decision. The Vice President reports that the summary plaques appear to be in a really bad position in the Victory Legion as they are now up above the divider wall and are barely visible.

The President is not present at this meeting.

Old Business: A discussion is started regarding trophies for this season and a request is made by the Board for Director Ken and the Vice President to obtain samples of trophies for this year so a decision can be made on what to purchase.

New Business: The Scorekeeper starts a discussion regarding a few teams that have forfeits for this season. After a discussion it is decided that the Secretary will reach out to these teams and determine what is going on as well as warn them that three forfeits in a season may result in the removal of their team.

The Treasurer hands over an envelope containing a thank you letter from the London Health Sciences Foundation which is read by the Secretary then given to the Scorekeeper to post on the League website.

Motion to Adjourn: Made by the Director Ed, seconded by Director Dave.
